

Section 3

TROUBLE AT HOME AND ABROAD

Conflicts in the Northwest Territory

- Treaty of Paris said British troops had to _____ in “timely manner”
- They didn’t...even after a decade
- AND they were _____...tryi ng to limit American expansion

Conflicts in the Northwest Territory

- A Struggle Over Lands
 - Many _____ were attacking settlements in NW Territory in 1780s
 - Often joined together
 - Many American leaders thought America's success depended on _____
 - Bought most of land from Native Americans in TN and KY
 - North of OH River Natives refused to sell land
 - White settlers moved in anyway

Conflicts in the Northwest Territory

- A Series of Battles
 - 1790- GW sent a small army to end Native attacks in NW Territory
 - Native armies led by _____ (Miami) and _____ (Shawnee) defeated US Army
 - A year later, GW sent larger army- again, Natives won
 - Killed over 900 American soldiers-

Conflicts in the Northwest Territory

- GW sent general _____ to end the fighting
- Native Americans gathered at a field with fallen trees everywhere- thinking it would be an advantage
- Wayne and his army defeated Natives- known as _____
- Ended NW hold by Natives
- _____ - Natives gave up most of land north of Ohio River to Lake Erie (now state of OH)

The French Revolution

- Began in 1789- many Americans felt France was going through the same thing they had and so they supported it
- Became controversial:
 - _____ - 17000 people were put to death by Revolutionaries, including king and queen
 - Federalists thought this was _____
 - Republicans (including Tjeff) said that when people fight for freedom some injustices had to happen

The French Revolution

- By 1793- _____
 - GW said America should stay neutral
(_____)
 - US wanted to _____ with both
 - Both worried trade with US would benefit the other
 - Started capturing US ships and seizing cargo
 - British began impressment of US sailors
(_____)
 - Hamilton urged GW to stay friendly with Britain- said trade with Brits allowed US prosperity (purchased 75% of US products and sold 90% of US imports)

The French Revolution

- GW sent _____ to help solve problems with Britain
- Came back with a Treaty of 1795 (_____)
 - US would pay long due fees to British merchants
 - Brits would pay for seized ships, leave NW territory, and stop aiding Native Americans
 - Brits refused to

 - Republicans hated treaty, Federalists liked it
 - Federalists controlled Senate so it narrowly passed

Washington Retires from Public Life

- _____ - GW steps down
- Farewell Address
 - Warned against _____
 - Warned against _____
 - _____ - said make no alliances
- Washington's accomplishments in 2 terms:
 - 1. functioning _____
 - 2. _____ getting better
 - 3. avoided _____
 - 4. British forced to _____