The Beginnings of Buddhism

Section 3

Introduction

- Hindu Prince- always surrounded with wealth and beauty
- Escaped from palace at age 30- saw

Left life of luxury to find cause of

- The Search for Understanding
 - 1st talked to Hindu philosophers- didn't like idea that only _____ could achieve brahman
 - ______ (focus the mind inward to find spiritual awareness) for 49 days under a fig tree while fasting
 - 45 years traveled and taught- followers called him Buddha which means "______"

The Middle Way

– Follow the
 Suffering caused by 	desires for power, wealth, and pleasure
 To avoid these things- one must learn to be 	5
	correctly,
and develop their	_

The Eightfold Path

1. Right ______ - understand Buddhism 2. Right ______ - commit to practice Buddhism 3. Right ______ - don't lie or be mean 4. Right ______ - don't steal, kill, or hurt people 5. Right - don't take jobs that contradict Buddhism 6. Right ______ - be positive! 7. Right ______ - aware of body, feelings, and thoughts 8. Right ______ - meditate to answer problems

- Release from Reincarnation
 - If you follow the Eightfold Path, suffering will end
 - You will find ______ (lasting peace)
 - Released from reincarnation

- Followers of Buddhism
 - All people are ______- anyone could achieve nirvana
 - Appealed to Hindus in ______
 - Buddhist priests- live in ______ difficult but anyone could do it
 - Learn to meditate and teach
 - Became ______- people who spread their religious beliefs to others

Buddhism Inside and Outside India

- Hindus and Buddhists: Shared Beliefs
 - Don't ______ living creatures
 - ____
 - Some Hindus thought Buddha was Vishnu
- Buddhism Spreads to Other Countries
 - Died out in India- powerful people went back to Hinduism
 - Missionaries and traders moved it throughout Asia
 - China, Korea, Japan....Tibet and Vietnam too